

Letter from Gilbert Grosvenor to Jason S. Joy, June 3, 1938, with transcript

P Dup June 3, 1938 Colonel Jason S. Joy, In Charge of Public Relations, (c/o Mr. Arthur A. De Titta) Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation, Munsey Building, Washington, D. C.
Dear Colonel Joy:

On behalf of the daughters of Alexander Graham Bell — Mrs. Grosvenor and Mrs. David Fairchild — I want to thank you for your kindness and trouble in calling yesterday to tell us of the plans and progress for the biographical film of Mr. Bell.

Let me repeat that the family will be collected in Beddeck, Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, all summer from July 1 to September 15, and that we shall be very glad to welcome the author of the script of the biographical film, whenever he finds it convenient to visit us. We can make him comfortable, as long as he wishes to stay and if he desires to bring a secretary with him we can take care of him (the secretary) also.

Will you advise me, however, several days in advance before their coming. Address me always in care of the National Geographic Society at Washington, as every communication — letter or telegram — received at my office is promptly forwarded to Baddeck.

Yours sincerely, (signed) GILBERT GROSVENOR
